

Carroll County Arts

The Board of Trustees for Carroll County Arts cordially invites you to attend the 3rd annual Oil Barons Ball at Atwood Lake Resort on Saturday, April 11, 2015. Proceeds from the Ball will help Carroll County Arts keep the creative spirit alive in Carroll County.

You will be treated to a delicious, multi-course dinner with wine, prepared by several chefs. Dinner will be followed by a live auction then dancing to a fun, dynamic band guaranteed to get everyone on the dance floor. This is a festive atmosphere with black-tie attire encouraged, but not required.

The evening will also include a silent auction and a themed Art show, with art on display by local artists. Artwork will be available for sale and you will have the opportunity to vote for your favorite piece.

Enclosed is information regarding tickets and other opportunities for your participation. To further help the Arts Center, we invite you to be a patron, sponsor or auction donor.

We look forward to your participation and to seeing you on April 11th.

Sincerely,

Dale Gallaher, Colleen Joseph, Joy Reed, Coral Abel and Therese Cook

P.S. Space is limited so get your tickets early. Deadline is March 25th, 2015.

Carroll County Arts is a nonprofit organization dedicated to inspiring and encouraging creativity, imagination, and an appreciation for the arts. Since 1993 thousands of individuals have viewed our exhibits, attended our concerts, participated in our educational classes and benefited from our outreach activities. We rely on generous donors and dedicated volunteers to help us foster the creative spirit in our community.
